Work-Life Authors' Perspectives – What's New in Flexibility?

March 10, 2005

2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. EDT

Join us for a Flex-Options
teleconference promoting workplace flexibility!

Learn what's new in flexibility from leading work-life authors.

Discover practical tips for creating a flexible workplace from Nicole Stephens of the woman-owned enterprise, Corporate Fitness Works.

FEATURED AUTHOR PANEL:

Maggie Jackson is a nationally known journalist and author. Her acclaimed first book, What's Happening to Home? Balancing Work, Life and Refuge in the Information Age, examines the loss of home as a refuge. She writes the "Balancing Acts" column in the Sunday Boston Globe, and her work has also appeared in The New York Times, Working Mother magazine and on National Public Radio. Maggie is the recipient of three Front Page awards from the Newswomen's Club of New York, and the media award from the Work-Life Council of the Conference Board. In 2001, she was awarded a travel and research grant from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

Sandra Burud, Ph.D. is co-author of Leveraging the New Human Capital: Adaptive Strategies, Results Achieved and Stories of Transformation. Named '2005 Outstanding Book of the Year' by the Academy of Human Resources Development, it presents a new theory of management that recognizes the 'dual-focus worker.' As past president of Alliance for Work-Life Progress, Dr. Burud directed the organization's efforts to develop a professional certification for practitioners. She is visiting research faculty at the Drucker Graduate School of Management at Claremont Graduate University and President of Burud & Co., a work-life and human capital consultancy firm.

Cali Williams Yost is the author of Work+Life: Finding the Fit That's Right for You. Cali's work has been featured on the national morning show Fox and Friends and in numerous publications including Fast Company magazine, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post and The Chicago Tribune. Cali is president of Work+Life, Inc., a company dedicated to empowering individuals to strategically manage their unique work+life fit realities, and helping organizations create strong employee-employer work+life fit partnerships. Previously, Cali was with the Families and Work Institute and Bright Horizons Family Solutions, two of the country's premier work-life organizations.
